Building food security & protein resilience through the Three Seas Initiative

WARSAW, POLAND

DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel & Conference Centre Warsaw
Skalnicowa 21, 04-797
Warsaw, Poland

Europe's protein system faces growing pressure as geopolitical instability and climate disruption expose supply-chain vulnerabilities and drive extreme price volatility.

It's time to turn shared ambition into practical action.

PROGRAMME OUTLINE

DAY 1 – Wednesday, 12 May 2027

FROM 11:30 CEST | REGISTRATION AND NETWORKING LUNCH

The opening day focuses on policy and the strategic role of legumes in Europe's protein security. Experts explore Europe's protein gap, trade routes and supply risks, and discuss how regional infrastructure and reliable partnerships can strengthen food security. A keynote examines legumes in farming under climate pressure, while farmers share practical lessons on growing profitable protein crops. Parallel sessions explore regional cooperation across the Three Seas region – the Adriatic, Baltic and Black Sea regions – with a focus on processing, logistics and investment. The day closes with a networking dinner.

DAY 2 – Thursday, 13 May 2027

FROM 08:30 CEST | WELCOME COFFEE

The second day focuses on market development and feed and food value chains, exploring how consumer trends can translate into reliable demand for European legumes. Discussions examine how to turn fragmented supply chains into dependable markets through cooperation, investment and risk sharing. Three parallel sessions cover future diets and food culture, feed security and livestock competitiveness, and agricultural innovation for viable protein crop production. The congress closes by exploring how to translate the EU Protein Action Plan and Livestock Strategy into regional and national actions.
